JOURNAL

October 22nd PM

- I know I'm starting this late but we'll get it hammered out cause I have a plan I've been thinking about
- I'm not sure I like this new update
- I kinda hate that I'm second guessing whether I know what each tool looks like
- This is driving me crazy so we're moving on
- It is a lot easier though that I don't have to worry about it being a solid
- Never mind I fucked this all up and I need to start over
- I got ahead of myself
- I hate sketchup
- I should really just work on half the body and then make the other half
- I've accepted that this is just going to be slow moving and that's ok
- I did it! I made the body!
- I like my car, it's cute

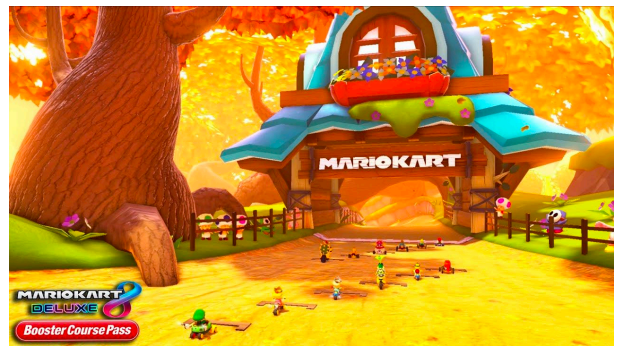

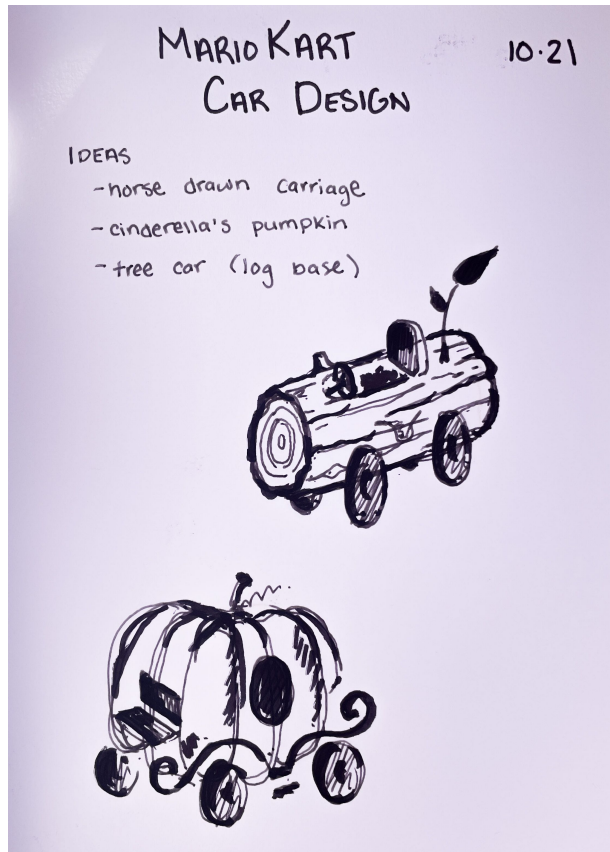

October 23rd AM

- I think I'm in love with my car
- I need to add color now which I have no idea how to do

October 23rd PM

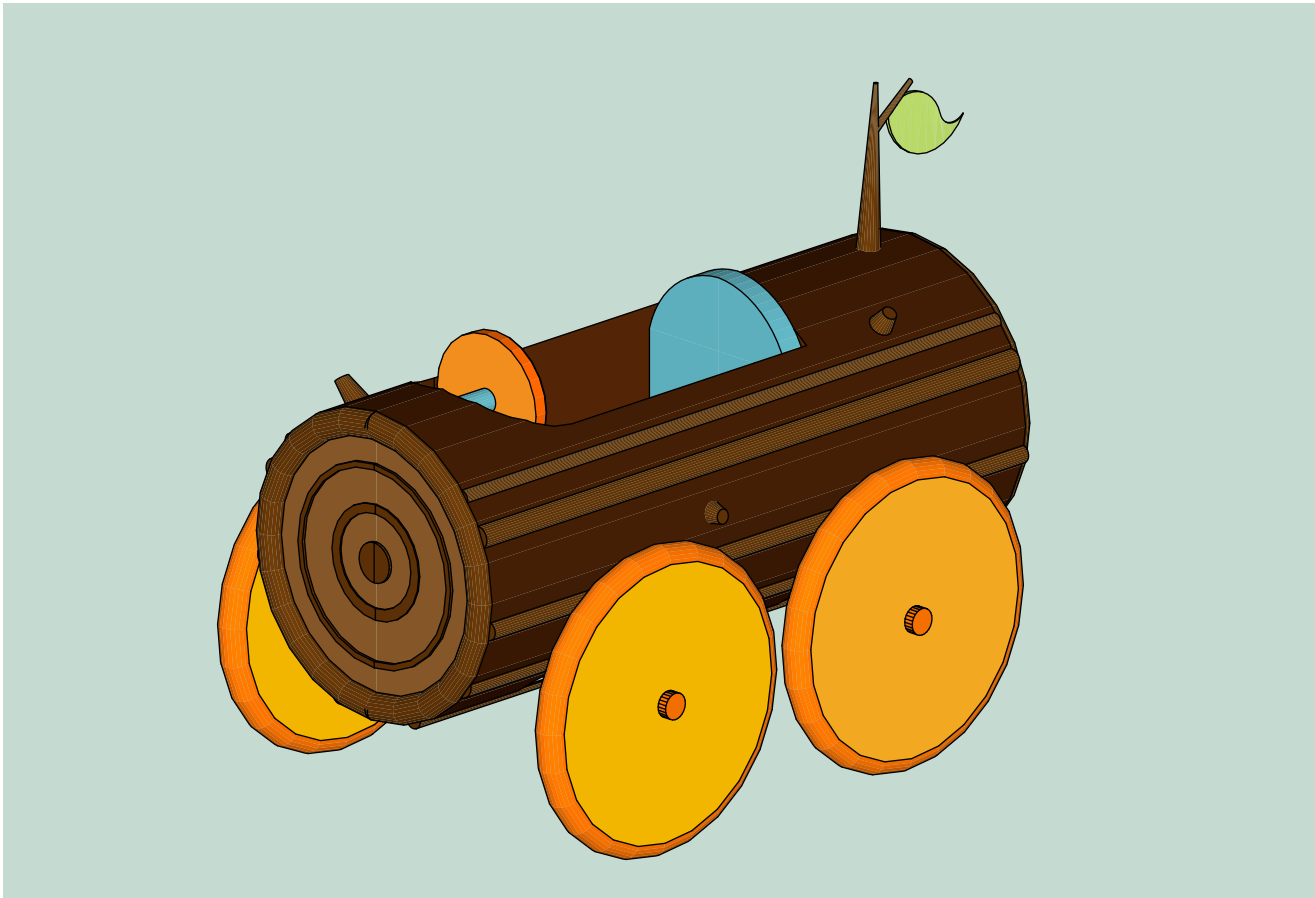

- MAPLE TREE WAY
- Ok I think Im happy with the colors
- Time to figure out this whole perspective thing
- I have no idea if I'm doing this right
- I also need to make dinner
- I should really take a break
- I have no idea if this is correct
- FOOOOOOOOOD
- Ok I feel better now
- And I think I'm done
